

Maddie Ditterline

SKILLS

Canva; Microsoft word; Google Suite; social media; customer service; alphanumeric organization, including the Dewey Decimal System; can lift/push heavy objects; checkout & circulation; intermediate understanding of Italian; collaboration

EXPERIENCE

LaGuardia High School Library, 100 Amsterdam Ave – Library Assistant/Intern

JANUARY 2026 – Present

- Initiated reorganization and restructuring projects
- Delegated in the design & creation of displays
- Substituted for the Head Librarian
- Created promotional posters & videos for the library
- Furthered efforts to identify, repair and preserve old/damaged materials
- Organized a large donation of documents dating back to 1947
- Guided new volunteers and temporary staff

LaGuardia High School Library, 100 Amsterdam Ave – Library Volunteer

MARCH 2025 – Present

- Regularly advised patrons, helping them access materials and find information
- Documented inventory of materials
- Reshelved materials and ensured they were in the correct place
- Participated in outreach events
- Advocated to the New York City Council about the importance of school libraries
- Logged new books in the Follet Destiny Discover System
- Assisted patrons use the library computers & printer
- Photocopied important library documents
- Regularly carried up to thirty pounds at a time

Wingspan Arts, Manhattan – Ambassador/Camper Liaison

JULY 2025 – AUGUST 2025

- Facilitated communication between the staff and the campers
- Organized and led camp events
- Helped create a welcoming and supportive community
- Mentored younger campers

EDUCATION

LaGuardia High School, Manhattan – High school diploma

September 2022 – June 2026

At Fiorello H. LaGuardia High School for Music and Art & Performing Arts, Maddie is a drama major, studying acting alongside their academics. This balance has taught them the importance of dedication and focus. They earned a GPA of 3.75, and will graduate this month.

Arcadia University – Bachelor of Fine Arts

August 2026 – May 2030

Maddie is currently enrolled at Arcadia University and will be starting in the fall.